

Continuous training on documentary research at the Faculty Institute of Agronomic Sciences of Yangambi from 03 to 04 November 2022

The Ecole Régionale postuniversitaire d'Aménagement de gestion Intégrés des Forêts et Territoires tropicaux (ERAIFT) organized a training and coaching of students of the third cycle of the Institut Facultaire des sciences Agronomiques de Yangambi campus of Kisangani on documentary research from 03 to 04 November 2022. This training provided by Dr. Isaac Diansambu, Course Master at ERAIFT has seen the participation of 60 learners enrolled in the role at this graduate school for the year 2021-2022.

Photo in the training of the researchers of the IFA-Yangambi on documentary research

ERAIFT thanks the Congolese State and all the partners who support the development in Yangambi. ERAIFT particularly thanks INERA-Yangambi and the researchers who participated in this activity. Finally, it presents its gratitude to the European Union and the Kingdom of Belgium for their financial support.